

2 Religious war and the limits of toleration – Part 2 — Answers

Answers

Work through these after you have tried the questions yourself.

2.1 a confession gave a ruler authority, so defending doctrine and defending power were the same act.

2.2 permitting a confession to exist, not accepting it as true.

2.3 it let both sides stop fighting without either conceding that the other was right.

2.4 who decides what a state believes.

2.5 the parties were agreeing to stop fighting, not to a principle that belief should be free. \
