HSK 6 Say it aloud 16: argument, summary and formal presentation

HSK 6 speaking: argument, summary and formal presentation, taught from the reviewed topic handout; classroom examples, not official exam items.

Hold the stance, mark the limits

Hold the stance, mark the limits: argue by reframing, piling and holding; summarise without distortion.

- 与其说 …… 不如说 …… reframes; 何况 piles; 即使 …… 也 …… holds.
- Concede with 诚然, then weigh.

Reframe, pile, hold

Three moves of a stance

与其说他懒，不如说他累了。Reframe.

这个方案省钱，何况还省时间。Pile.

即使明天下雨，我们也出发。Hold.

Concede and weigh

Armour before the turn

诚然，这个办法费时间；

不过从长远来看，值得。

Raise it, weigh it, answer it.

Compress without distortion

One breath, the spine

总的来说，问题不在于钱，而在于沟通。

New points park here: 这个我们以后再谈。

One breath, no new cargo.

The podium register

Spoken clothes, podium clothes

所以 becomes 因此.

还有 becomes 此外；然后 becomes 其次.

事儿 becomes 事情.

Watch out

Two guards

与其说 redefines the question; it does not compare heights.

何况 piles onto an accepted reason; it cannot open alone. Jishi keeps its ye.

Check yourself

Four checks

Which pair reframes: rather than X, better Y?

Which word piles a second reason?

Open the concession: ……, this method costs time…

Podium swap: 所以 becomes what?
